Dear Mr Simon Beale,

A huge and sincere thank you for your wonderful donation of £2,000 to our work to support military families affected by suicide.

This contribution is greatly appreciated given the financial pressures you will no doubt have on your funding, and the continued hardships that these military families face.

As we approach the end of 2024, the Military Families Affected by Suicide support group is now planning its 2025 activities. Your support will playing a significant contribution to all its activities, including a residential weekend, with group sessions for different family members, wellbeing workshops, as well as family outings with others facing the same experiences of grief. With your generous help, we have been able to keep this much-needed group going.

On behalf of all at SSAFA – my colleagues, volunteers, and our beneficiaries – thank you again for your contribution. Please share my sincere appreciation with your colleagues for their support of SSAFA. It is with great pride that we can continue to help serving and former members of the Armed Forces and their families.

When beneficiaries thank us, they are, of course, also thanking you and we do not forget that.

Yours sincerely,

Iqtadar Hasnain
